

A FEW LAUGHS WITH THE COMIC ARTISTS

"How are you coming along at golf?"
 "Oh, fine."
 "Break any records as yet?"
 "Well, I've broken twenty-six golf sticks, the front gate, the honeysuckle vine, the cat's back and my right leg since I began playing, so I guess I'm coming strong."

FIND THE PIRATE'S TWO VICTIMS.

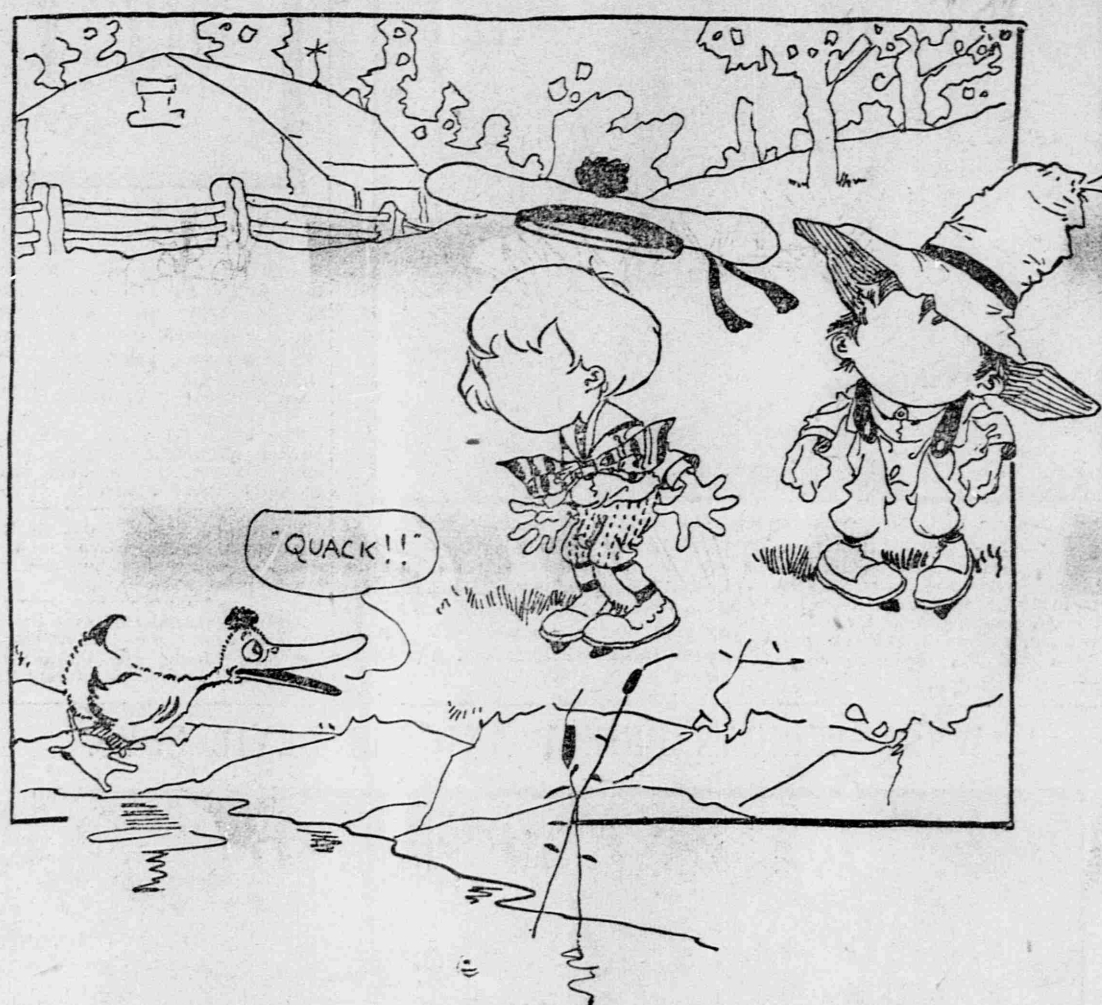

Weary Walker—I don't know whether dat sign means "shotgun" or "health food." But I don't take no chances!

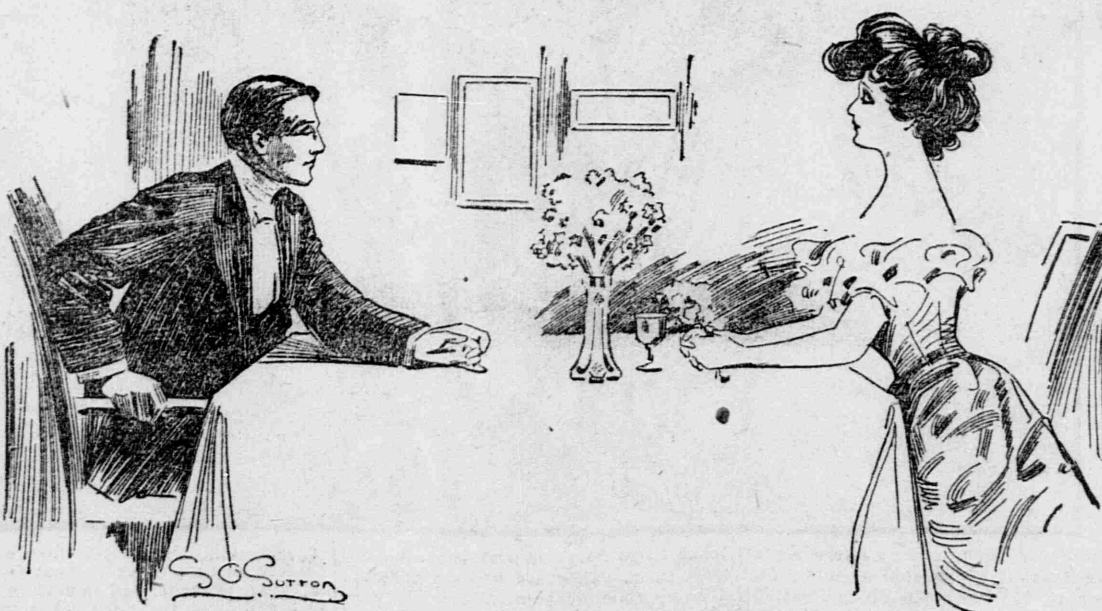

INSIDE OF HIM.
 "Is that cake I left on this table?"
 "It's with the jam that was in the closet, ma'am."

THE AMERICAN GIRL OF TODAY AND BYGONE TIMES.

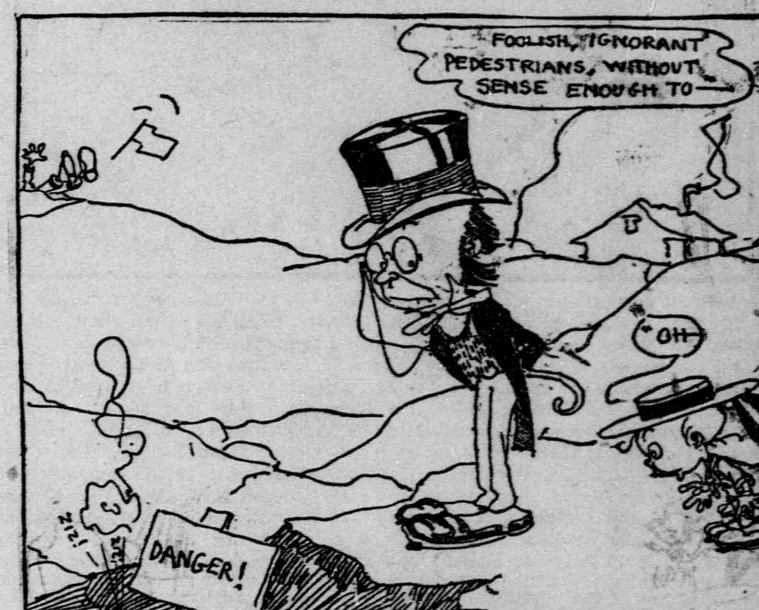

Little Cecil Cityboye is frightened by the duck, which greatly amuses his country cousin. See if you can fill in the faces with funny and appropriate expressions, etc.

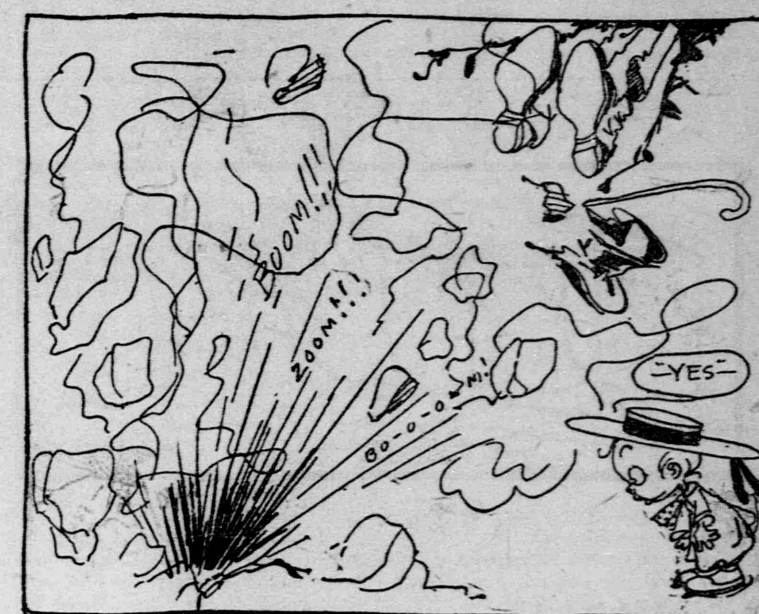

VERY PROSPEROUS.
 "I understand the head waiter has all kinds of money."
 "Yes, he holds most of his property in fee."

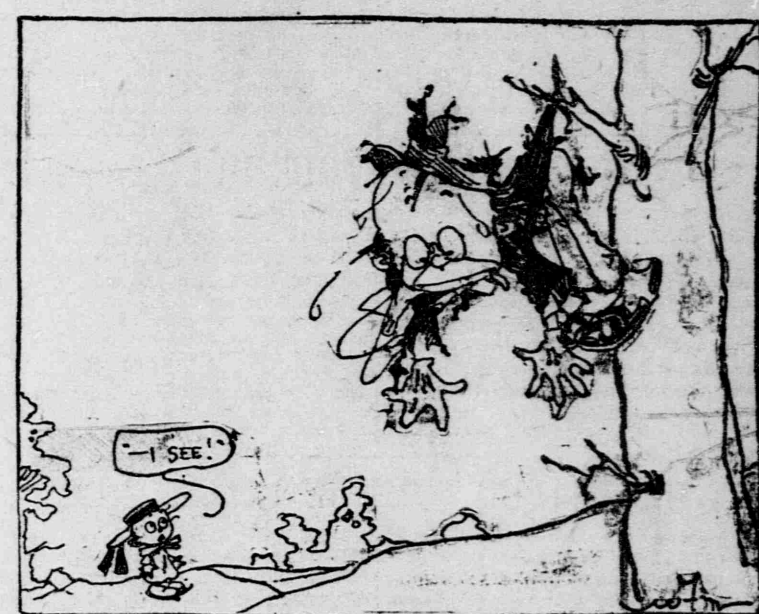

One.

Two.

Three.

Four.

POLO INJURIES.
 "Are you not afraid you'll get hurt?"
 "Oh, no. Polo has broken me several times already."